

CANCEL FOR ANY REASON (CFAR) COVER ADD-ON

Life happens. Now you can book your next trip with confidence.

By tailoring your cover with the CFAR optional add-on, you can now have a flexible plan that reflects how you like to travel. CFAR allows you to cancel for any reason... any reason at all!

CFAR means you don't need to have a reason, however, here's a few examples:

I've broken up with my partner

I'm a nervous traveller

You're concerned about recent events at your travel destination and want to postpone your trip

My pet is sick and requires surgery

I've just started a new job and can't get leave

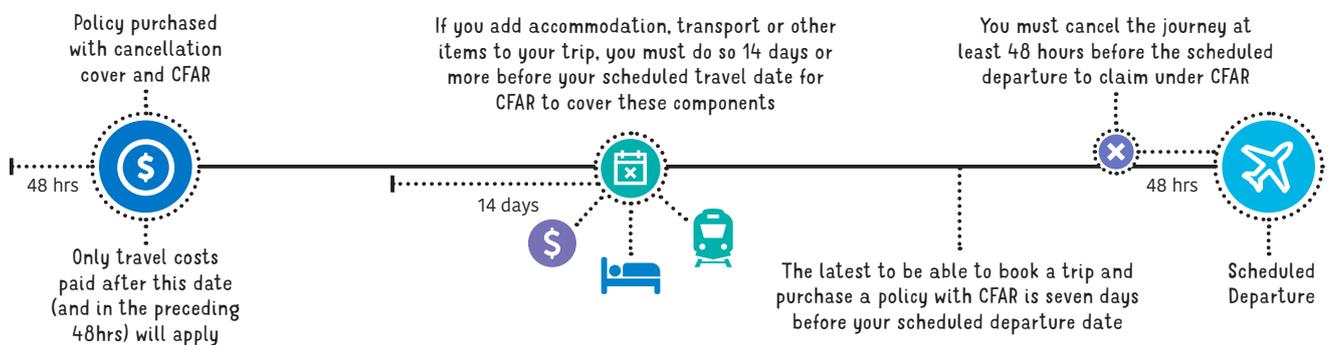

Your financial situation has changed and you would prefer not to travel right now

What you need to know:

CFAR covers up to the lesser of 75% of the non-refundable unused portion of all prepaid travel costs or up to 75% of the Cancellation Cover sum

You can claim up to $10,000 per policy

Our regular Cancellation Cover covers unforeseeable situations usually covered by the policy while adding on CFAR covers reasons that wouldn't ordinarily be covered under the policy
